Your support is greatly appreciated.

Thank you!

The Prospect House & Civil War Museum provides unique educational experiences based on authentic objects, stories and life of an American pioneering family, and the private Civil War collection of James A. "Cap" Colehour, Civil War Veteran. The museum also explores the stories of the Battle Lake area as a vacation destination, past, present and future, to inspire residents and visitors with the creativity and enterprise of the human spirit.

The Prospect House & Civil War Museum is a tax deductible nonprofit 501(c)(3)
